NERVY RIDERS THRILL CROWD AT LAKESIDE RODEO

2 FIRES BRING THREE ENGINES TO LAKESIDE

EUCALYPTUS GROVE AND HELM PROPERTY SCENES OF BLAZES

Two fires in Lakeside district Wednesday brought out state county and volunteer firemen from El Cajon to fight them. They did so capably that little property damage resulted.

The first fire was in a eucalyptus grove in the hills on property owned by Mrs. Myrtle Meyer. It swept over about 5 acres. Three fire engines answered the call. Two were from La Mesa and one from El Cajon. The former were manned by State Forestry Department and county firemen, respectively, while the third was brought over by the El Cajon volunteer department and was operated by Clyde Shaw and Dave Stearns. The cavalcade of fire fighting machines was led by Chief of Police Edward Cartwright of El Cajon in his car.

FIRE THREATENS CHICKEN HOUSES

No sooner had they quenched the blaze in the eucalyptus grove than another alarm was sounded, this time on the other side of town. A rubbish fire outside the home of Postmaster and Mrs. Helm on Orange street was scattered by a sudden whirl of wind and burning pieces flew into the grass on the hillside.

Fortunately the Forestry and County engines were still here and were rushed to the scene. The fire burned over about two acres of grass before being subdued. The firefighters had quite a time to save three large chicken houses. The fire burned right up to one of them.

Postmaster Helm stated that no monetary damage was done, except that perhaps some of the trees on his place may prove to have suffered from the heat. The whole side of the hill was burned off to the south of the Helm place and just about up to the irrigation district property where the storage tank is. It also ran into the W. S. Oaks place and burned some of the brush.

GUESTS FOR WEEK END

Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Lake had as their guests for the week end Mr. and Mrs. Charles Chambers of San Jacinto.

COMMITTEE WILL PREPARE FOR EXHIBIT AT FAIR

On Wednesday night the Lakeside Chamber of Commerce set the wheels in motion for representation at San Diego County's Fifth annual Fair to be held at Del Mar, July 1 to 4 inclusive. A letter was read from Manager W. F. Tunney inviting cooperation.

President Allen G. Mitchell named Bob Swearingin, Wm. Wollin and John Wilkinson for this purpose and to prepare an exhibit.

Tony Held made a report regarding the roads. He stated that nothing had been done up to this time but Supervisor Wm. Hart had agreed to come

Off To See 'Cavalcade' At Fair

Mayor Angelo J. Rossi (right) of San Francisco, accepts a fancy invitation to see The Cavalcade of The Golden West at the California World's Fair and in an ancient equipage heads for Treasure Island. The Cavalcade, condensing 400 years of romantic Western history into a little more than an hour, presents a swift moving drama that has fascinated thousands of Exposition visitors. Driving the auto, one of the Cavalcade 'props', is Tom Sharkey, former contender for the world's heavyweight title, an actor in the show, while in the back are "girls of the gay 90's."

CHAMBER OF COMMERCE ASKED TO JOIN IN BUS CAMPAIGN

Lakeside has been asked by the El Cajon Valley Chamber of Commerce to join in applying to the State Railroad Commission for extension of bus service to include this area.

At the dinner meeting of the Lakeside Chamber on Wednesday night President Allen G. Mitchell reported receipt of a letter from Program Chairman A. Weinstock of the El Cajon group outlining the matter.

Weinstock stated that his association, at its next meeting on May 15, will discuss the plan for extension of bus service on a loop route covering El Cajon, Santee, Lakeside and Bostonia and improved schedule on the San Diego-El Cajon leg. He invited any Lakeside people who might be interested to attend and express their views. President Mitchell asks that anyone who cares to express their views do so and leave them and their names at the Lakeside Farmer office. Transportation for anyone desiring to attend the El Cajon meeting will be arranged.

LOCAL MEN TO JOIN COUNTY ROAD TOUR

Lakeside will be represented on the annual county road tour today. Bob Swearingin, Tony Held, A. G. Mitchell and Noel N. Sands were named on Wednesday night, at the Chamber of Commerce meeting, to represent the town. They expect to leave here at 7:30 a. m. and join the others at San Diego. The tour is sponsored by the San Diego C. of C. highway committee and the County Highway Development association.

E. H. Carender spoke on the need for improving Lindo park. He suggests that relief labor could be used. He and L. G. Scott were appointed to see the Supervisors in regard to the matter.

MEMBERS ELECT NEW SECRETARY

President Mitchell reported that C. C. Yelland had resigned the office of secretary. An election was held to fill the position and resulted in the choice of Noel N. Sands, general manager of the Lakeside Farmer.

Wm. Wollin made a report on the flower show prizes. He said they solicited fifteen

FINE SHOWING IS MADE IN SAVINGS BONDS SALES

LAKESIDE RANKS HIGH IN BUYING U. S. SECURITIES

Lakeside has again proven itself upon the map. In fact it looks like a very definite spot on the California map, judging from the U. S. Savings Bond report received this week at the local post office.

On this report Lakeside ranks twenty-ninth among the third class offices of the state in the sale of savings bonds for the year 1938. As there are 253 offices of this class in California this high rank is remarkable for a town of this size.

Savings bond sales here for the year were $4106.25 as compared with $2306.25 for 1937, when the office ranked thirty-seventh in the state.

Postmaster Helm says that these bonds have been purchased for various purposes. Some people are trying to provide an income for their old age, others are looking ahead toward the education of children, a few are saving for a rainy day, and still others buy the bonds for an investment.

TREES DOCTORED IN EL MONTE PARK

Mr. Claude Hup, recently appointed by the County of San Diego as a tree surgeon, is at present working with a crew at El Monte Park giving the oak trees a general going over.

EXCITING PROGRAM SEEN BY THIRTY-FIVE HUNDRED

Keenly Contested Events Are Loudly Applauded By Large Throng of Spectators

STUDENTS WILL HEAR SPEECH BY S. D. DEAN

EDUCATION HEAD WILL ADDRESS CLASS OF '39

Thursday, May 11, will be an important day at the Lakeside Grammar School. Superintendent E. H. Carender announces that at 10:40 a. m. Dr. Raymond E. Perry, Dean of Education at San Diego State Teachers College, will deliver the pre-graduation address to the class of '39, in the school auditorium. All members of the families and friends of the eighth grade are invited.

BALBOA PARK PICNIC

Today is another one which is being looked much forward to by the pupils at Lakeside Grammar School. The annual school picnic will be held in Balboa Park, San Diego. The entire school leave here at 9 a. m. in school busses and private cars. The morning will be spent visiting the various buildings. The pupils will have lunch in the park and in the afternoon will go in a body to see the famous zoo.

ORCHESTRA SOCIAL

An interesting event at the grammar school this week was the social given by the school orchestra Tuesday evening. Outdoor and indoor games were played and refreshments were partaken of in the cafeteria. Vivian Ziebarth and Margaret Cota were hostesses for the evening.

For other news of Lakeside Grammar School see the school page.

FIRE WARNING IS GIVEN BY STATE

Notice that all persons must get a permit before burning weeds, rubbish, etc. is given by the State Forestry Department. For permits in Lakeside see Stephen F. Sharpe, deputy sheriff, or phone the State Forestry agent at La Mesa 2233.

Thrills enough to satisfy any body marked the rodeo staged last Sunday by the Lakeside Rodeo Association. And there were some spills, too, to add to the excitement. The attendance which included a number of notables from all over San Diego county and from many points in the West, was estimated by Manager Tom LaMadrid at about 3,500.

A somewhat serious accident to Harry Louge from Wyoming marred what otherwise was a perfect day. Louge was gored by a wild steer during the bulldogging contest. After treatment he was taken to a San Diego hospital. Of course not all the other riders came off with whole skins; some had to be treated for minor hurts.

GRANDMOTHER ASSISTS IN FANCY RIDING

Sam Garrett of Burbank, who acted as announcer, also put on his fancy riding and rope throwing stunts to the delight of the crowd. He was assisted by Mrs. Hazel McCart, known on two continents as the bronco busting grandmother. She has also added to her fame by riding wild steers but she was not seen in that nerve-wracking performance last Sunday. The many events on the program were well received and keenly enjoyed by the crowd.

STREET PARADE AND DANCES ENJOYED

In addition to the thrilling events in the arena there were other attractions for the many visitors and local people. The dances were held on Saturday and Sunday nights and there was the usual street parade by the participants, preceeding the main show.

The crowd was orderly all throughout the celebration. Deputy Sheriff S. F. Sharpe of Lakeside was assisted in maintaining order on Saturday night by Constable Charles V. Fry, of El Cajon. Men from the Sheriff's office at San Diego came out on Sunday and were on hand at the grounds. Sheriff Ernest Dort, himself, was present and among visitors from the outside was Chief of Police of Brawley, wife and daughter.

FINE PROGRAM AT ANNUAL MAY DAY BREAKFAST

Very successful in every way was the annual May Day Breakfast of the Lakeside Woman's Club held yesterday in the clubhouse. A delightful meal was served at beautifully decorated tables by the Junior Auxiliary of the club, headed by Mrs. Bessie Foster, president to about 50 members and guests.

An enjoyable program followed the breakfast, part of which were selections given by the Lakeside Grammar School Junior Orchestra, under the supervision of Merle M. Baker and a piano solo by Beverly Hartley.

Following the musical selections announcements were made and Mrs. Vera B. Dwyer, president of the club, then introduced the new officers for the coming year: Mrs. George B. Curtis, president; Mrs. Marvin Vice, vice president and Mrs. Allen G. Mitchell, corresponding secretary.

A dainty corsage of spring flowers was given to everyone present.

Today, Friday, a book review will be held at the clubhouse which all members and friends are invited to attend.

VERSE FOR THE DAY

There's many a gem in the path of life
Which we pass in our idle pleasure.
That is richer far than the jeweled crown
Or the miser's hoarded treasure;
It may be the love of a little child,
Or the mother's prayer to heaven,
Or only a beggar's grateful thanks
For a cup of water given.

PLEASED TO MEET YOU

Time does many things besides marching on. For instance, it brings many changes. One such change has come to the Lakeside Farmer. Your community newspaper and printing house have new conductors. These newcomers hope to be worthy of your welcome.

The new editor, his son, Noel N. Sands, and his daughter, Mrs. Winnifred S. Turner, who will have charge of the newspaper and the printing business, are all experienced newspaper people. They are eager to assist in every way they can in the upbuilding of the Lakeside district.

People say that promises are like pie crust — made to be broken. No promise will be made by us today but, as time does that marching on already mentioned, readers will be able to judge for themselves whether or not they are getting a newspaper that meets the needs of the community.

It may, however, be stated that we have no axes to grind, political or otherwise. All we wish to do is to cooperate to the best of our ability in the development of Lakeside and to live on friendly terms with all our neighbors. The editor would like to carry out, as far as he is able to do so, the characteristics of that generous spirit, Wordsworth's Happy Warrior:

"Whose high endeavors are an inward light
That makes the path before him always bright
Who, with a natural instinct to discern
What knowledge can perform, is diligent to learn;

Abides by this resolve, and stops not there,
But makes his moral being his prime care."

Not so easy, is it, to carry out such high endeavors, but one will do his best.

These are days of strife and turmoil in many lands but here, in this pleasant Lakeside Valley, one seems far removed from terror and distress that afflicts so many of the suffering human race. It is not the province of a small community newspaper to report the "doubts, disputes, distractions and fears" of nations. Here with the hills around us and the sunlight fields, we are called upon to deal with what the poet describes as the "mild concerns of ordinary life." While doing that we should like to be a real and useful influence in Lakeside. All the energies of the new conductors of the newspaper will be directed to that end and therefore we are most hopeful that we will gain adequate support from this interesting community.

MORE RODEO LAURELS WON

More laurels were worthily won last Sunday by the conductors of Lakeside's far-famed rodeo. Through their earnest efforts Lakeside again proved its title to be called "the rodeo city of San Diego County."

This village was certainly a picturesque place over the week-end. When writing an advance notice of the show last week our genial predecessor, Mr. C. C. Yelland, stated that Lakeside has a reputation for putting on the best in rodeo entertainment. It certainly lived up to that reputation. Those responsible made good in every way.

The blossoms have disappeared from most of the orchards. There remains, however, a fragrant memory of them.

Solomon in all his glory was never so beautifully arrayed as a flowering peach.

FAIR FRAGRANT FLOWERS

The man or woman who cultivates a garden and raises flowers, be they few or many, bestow gifts which fill the heart with pleasure. There must be many of that class here in Lakeside. The fine flower show given last week under the auspices of the Woman's Club amply proved that.

Those who visited the show and wandered down the aisles of fragrant flowers found themselves in a veritable bower of beauty. One could almost imagine that it was a flower fairland, with Oberon, the King of the Fairies, saying:

"I know a bank whereon the wild thyme blows,
Where ox-lip and the nodding violet blows,
Quite over-canopied with lush woodbine,
With sweet musk roses and with eglantine."

Although we are newcomers here we feel that we may, through the Lakeside Farmer, gladly extend the thanks of all to everyone who had a part in giving this wonderful floral display.

Flowers seem to link mortals with heaven. They not only add to the enjoyment of life but they help us to go forth with brave and joyful hearts to perform our daily duties. They are so lovely and yet so mysterious. They have voices, too; for do they not tell us, in their own beautiful way, that there is glory and color and fragrance, free for all who will spend a short time each day cultivating a garden?

JUST ANOTHER ADVENTURE

Someone once said that if you look at it the right way, life is just one adventure after another. And everybody likes adventures.

Coming to Lakeside is an adventure for us. We don't know what's before us but we hope for the best. We trust to the One whom Matthew Arnold called, the Guide of our dark steps. Not that we expect our steps to be particularly dark in such a bright place as Lakeside but, in general, this sad old world is in such a fix that it's hard to know what's going to happen next.

Just to show how true it is that you are unaware what's going to happen next one may quote from a personal experience. If some person had said to us two months ago "you are going to live in Lakeside," the answer would have been "O yeah" and we might have added, "where on the atlas is Lakeside?"

Since then we've studied maps and read books and newspapers about San Diego county and have found out a little something about Lakeside. Moreover we are living here now and find it delightful.

But the point we wish to make is this: Lakeside surely needs some advertising. With all the good will in the world we had to do a lot of searching to find out what little we know about this charming place. Looking over the files of the Lakeside Farmer we were fortunate enough to find a fine historical sketch written by Mr. and Mrs. Thomas F. Helm. And in the office we also came across a well-illustrated pamphlet compiled some years ago by our old friend Timothy Brownhill, who established the Lakeside Farmer.

Advertising will help the merchants of this town; in fact it will be useful to all. Everybody knows the story of Robinson Crusoe. A newspaper friend in Los Angeles county recently made effective reference to the fact that Robinson Crusoe made good use of advertising.

You remember that Robinson Crusoe was wrecked on a lonely and desolate island. Of course he wanted to get off and he wished that fact to be known. It wasn't enough that his man Friday should know it or that his pet goat and his parrot, and the other things on his island should be told of it. He wanted the whole world to know about it.

So what did Robinson Crusoe do? He did what any wise man does who wants to reach other people:

He advertised.

Now right off the bat it might occur to you, said our newspaper friend, that old Robinson Crusoe had about as little an advertising opportunity as any man ever had. True; but that didn't keep him from advertising.

All he had in the world to advertise with was an old shirt. Not much of an advertising medium, we will admit. And his prospective customers were very few.

But Robinson Crusoe was one of those guys who made the most of his opportunities. He took the old shirt, stuck it on a pole and planted the pole on the highest point of his island, so that it might be seen by a passing ship.

And here's something really important: He didn't stick it up there for just one day and take it down the next. He didn't say to himself "Advertising may be all right for some folks but it's no good for me." He just put up the only ad he had, in the best position he could find for it and he kept it there, day in and day out.

And finally he got results.

So, if at any time you find yourself wondering whether advertising is worth while, remember Robinson Crusoe. And also remember, if you care to, that in the Lakeside Farmer you have your logical local medium.

GOVERNMENTAL REORGANIZATION (SEE WHITE HOUSE)

"To make democracy work . . . to ensure . . . free government . . ."

EUROPE:

Prelude, Song, Postlude

Democracy was adamant one week before Der Fuehrer gave Reichstag and the world his answer to President Roosevelt's peace appeal. By four days before speech time Hitler had become adamant, Britain and the U. S. cautiously shifting their stand to show simultaneously that democracies (1) will not, and (2) can be persuaded to, participate in another Munich conference.

Britain showed appeasement inclinations by rushing her previously recalled ambassador, pro-Nazi Sir Neville Henderson, back to Berlin. Next day, as Nazi Foreign Minister Joachim von Ribbentrop delightedly kept Sir Neville waiting outside his door, Britain indignantly inaugurated her first peacetime conscription and presented parliament with a $6,213,000,000 budget (of which 47 per cent will go for arms). In the U. S., Secretary of State Cordell Hull warned Hitler to eschew more conquests in favor of "peace before war" via negotiation. Meanwhile the treasury wooed Hitler's good will by modifying its 25 per cent penalty against German imports.

Poland prepared to defend her borders at all cost. Rumania decided to avoid an anti-Nazi pact. Japan fidgeted excitedly and complained she did not want war with democracies despite her anti-Coma pathway from Germany to East Prussia through the Polish corridor. In return, Hitler guarantees the Polish corridor and recognizes Polish commercial rights in Danzig.

(2) Treaty or no, Danzig must be returned to Germany.

(3) Hitler denounces the Anglo-German naval limitations treaty, but will gladly discuss the problem to prevent a naval race.

Highlight of the rebuttal was that Germany will give non-aggression promises to each of the nations allegedly "threatened," but that each guarantee will be made individually upon petition and on a basis of absolute reciprocity. Greatest rebuttal sarcasm concerned such "threatened" nations as Ireland and Palestine, which—according to Hitler—have more to fear from English suppression than German aggression.

Point-by-point rebuttal:
(1) Mr. Roosevelt pointed to three European and one African nation whose independence has been terminated since 1936. Answer: What is "independence," anyway? Albania, Austria and Czechoslovakia really had their "independence" terminated after the World war. As for Africa, Mussolini's Ethiopian conquest merely followed a prece-dence of aggression established by France and Britain.

(2) Has Germany been aggressive? Answer: No, Germany has kept peace since 1918, compared with repeated U. S. intervention in the world's wars.

(3) Has any nation the right to wage war except in self defense? Answer: No, and certainly the U. S. did not enter the World war in self defense, which gives Mr. Roosevelt little right to speak of such matters.

(4) Can world problems be solved via conference? Answer: Yes, theoretically; no, practically. Example is the League of Nations which the U. S. shunned, thereby admitting the failure of peace by conference. Hence Germany followed U. S. example and left the League. Freedom of North America was solved by conference any more, was the U. S. civil war.

For U. S. citizens, biggest news of the speech was (1) a promise that Germany intended no invasion, (2) a supplication that President Roosevelt take the lead in world efforts. For British, biggest was a very obvious bid for will despite denunciation of the navy pact.

Postlude. Best opinion held the two-hour harangue a conciliatory refusal of Mr. Roosevelt's appeal. Said Kansas' Sen. Arthur Capper: "After listening to Hitler, I still hope Europe's troubles can be settled by peaceful methods." Informed observers left their loud speakers expecting both the U. S. and Britain to make new overtures, confident that war had been averted for the nonce, but certain above all else that Adolf Hitler positively holds the European whip hand.

WHITE HOUSE:

Reorganization

"Dictator" criticism notwithstanding, U. S. governmental reorganization is substantially a sound idea if it promotes economy and efficiency by lumping miscellaneous, isolated and similarly functioning offices under a single administrator. Last year's reorganization bill stumbled partly because it might have given an unscrupulous future President too much power. Modified and passed this session, it allows the President six administrative assistants and permits him to draft reorganization plans which congress must accept entirely or reject within 60 days.

Already submitted is the major portion of Mr. Roosevelt's plan (see chart above) designed "to make democracy work—to strengthen the arms of democracy in peace or war and ensure the solid blessings of free government . . ." Three new agencies (public works, social security, loans) will be managed by three of the six new $12,000-a-year administrative assistants, each of which will have a $9,000-a-year assistant administrator. Lacking cabinet portfolio (the original plan contemplated new cabinet posts for security and work agencies), the new administrative assistants will nevertheless be virtually of that rank.

Two more reorganization plans to come will (1) shift bureaus from one department to another, thus securing more logical classifications, and (2) reorganize intra-departmental machinery. Biggest contemplated objective in the latter plan, since dropped, was consolidation of all six of the treasury's investigative units, a step the President finally decided might lead to a U. S. copy of Germany's Gestapo or Russia's OGPU.

PHILIPPINES:

Problem Child

Less than a decade has passed since the U. S. fought Philippine independence demands, but tables have a way of turning. Given congressional assurance of early freedom, Philippine President Manuel Quezon hardly had time to exult before Japan turned imperialistic, swaggered into China and began grabbing off every piece of unprotected real estate within Asiatic waters. Since Japs already hold a strong commercial position in Manila, moreover since even a double-strength U. S. Pacific fleet might not be able to hold the islands against sudden attack, many Americans believe their nation should leave the Philippines before getting involved in war. Added impetus is given by U. S. agriculture's resentment over concessions to Filipino sugar.

Sensing that the U. S. was anxious to pull stakes, Manuel Quezon last year appealed to President Roosevelt and won an administration-sponsored proposal calling for political independence in 1946, the 25 per cent tariff being increased by 5 per cent a year until wholly effective in 1961. Since President Quezon will not be able to attend hearings this year, the bill is being tabled until next session. When he does arrive, Mr. Quezon will be offered an even stronger deal which members of the Senate committee on territories and insular possessions have already accepted unanimously, albeit secretly. The deal: If Filipinos will cut political ties with the U. S. in 1942, current 25 per cent tariff rates will continue until 1946 as under the administration bill. Then rates will jump 10 per cent annually until the U. S. washes its hands of the whole affair in 1953.

Still officially unannounced, the substitute bill (suggested by Maryland's Sen. Millard E. Tydings) has been hushed for fear Japan may sail into Manila immediately, confident the U. S. does not care to defend its harbor Admiral Dewey stomped politically in 1898.

PEOPLE:

Shortstop to Cardinal?

Named archbishop of New York to succeed the late Patrick Cardinal Hayes, Most Reverend Francis J. Spellman, 49-year-old auxiliary bishop of Boston whose boyhood friends at Whitman, Mass., remember him as the town's best baseball shortstop and a better-than-average boxer. Forecast: That Archbishop Spellman will also be named cardinal at the June consistory in Rome.

Appointed to the securities and exchange commission, liberal Leon Henderson, 44-year-old former NIRA board man and WPA economist.

Silenced by Scotland Yard, Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt, from telling reporters about White House living quarters planned for King George and Queen Elizabeth during their June visit.

Ousted from Rome, Richard Mowrer, correspondent for the Chicago Daily News, for his "unfriendly" dispatches. Last November 20 another Daily News man, Frank Smothers, was also invited to leave Italy.

History of South Sea island voyagers who crossed thousands of miles of the Pacific Ocean in canoe and small craft will be told as part of the re-enactment of the colorful history of the Pacific Basin at the 1939 World's Fair of the West.

SIR NEVILLE HENDERSON
Herr von Ribbentrop had fun.

SCHOOLS

The following items are extracted from that excellent little paper, Static, published weekly during the term by the pupils of Lakeside Union Grammar School:

HAPPY BIRTHDAY

Leona Danserau, April 29.
Betty McClain, April 29.
Charles Kennison, April 30.
Billy Ruiz, May 1.
Arthur Wilkinson, May 2.
Comfort Taylor, May 3.
Barbara Pepper, May 6.
Melvin Curo, May 8.

TO HEAR MRS. BENCHLEY

A very kind invitation has come to Lakeside School and community to visit the Bostonia Grange at Bostonia Guild Hall, Wednesday, May 10, 8:00 p. m. Mrs. Belle Benchley will talk on "The Animals of the Zoo" and the Merkley Maids will sing and play. If required, the school busses will go.

OPPORTUNITY TO BROADCAST

Boys and girls, have you heard about going to the radio station on May 22nd? Mrs. Duffy has a radio program every Monday afternoon at 4:30 over KFSD. She has children from different county schools come in and read poems that they have written. On May 22 she has asked some of the children from our school to come and read some of their poems. So if you try real hard to make up some good poems maybe you will be one of the lucky ones to go.

WILDFLOWER EXHIBIT

The pupils of the Lakeside School certainly brought in wildflowers this year. One hundred and sixty-one varieties were counted in the exhibit at the flower show. This included desert flowers which were gathered by pupils from the 3rd to 8th grades on a fine trip to the desert. One pupil from each of those grades went. This year's exhibit was the largest that has been entered. Many expressions of wonder and admiration were heard on all sides at the variety of flowers gathered. Some of our common wildflowers were missing from the exhibit too.

SIX YEARS AGO

From the Static of May, 1933: Jane Phillips was chosen May Queen. May Day Program, 5th, with Harold Pratt as King.

Russell Wilkinson, Humpty-Dumpty, Clara Smith, Bo-Peep, Leroy Foster, King's Herald. Estella May Brown won the contest for taking notes on a lecture. Esther Lutton reported that the Lakeside Orchestra was invited to take part in a large combination orchestra for Education Week in Ramona. Some of our proud participants were: Esther Lutton, Richard Nelson, Guy Miller, Phyllis Miller, Jimmie Nelson, Faith May Offord, Celia Denlinger, Estella May Brown, Marjorie Kephart, Louise Philbrook, Carol Swink, Evalyn and Bevan Walker, Ray Offord, Mary Linn and Daisy Dahlman.

Billy Palmer was back in school after several months illness during which time he kept his school work up to a high degree of efficiency. Alfred Mc Kay had the lead in the class play "I Will, I Won't." Harry Ashfield was the live wire editor in chief. In the Sun School Page Contest, Lakeside and Encinitas tied for first place. Lakeside had won first the previous year and the county sweepstakes two years previous. Willie Ames had the misfortune to fall, striking his mouth against a hydrant and seriously injuring several upper teeth and palate. Raymond Foster took first place in the only two events he entered in the State College track meet.

MOVE TO GLENVIEW FROM BOSTONIA

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Naylor have moved from Bostonia to the Plummer cottage in Glenview.

CHURCHES

LAKESIDE COMMUNITY CHURCH

Lakeside Community Church

At the morning service on Sunday, Maris Haley and Ilese Rein reported on the Young People's conference held under the auspices of the Young Peoples department of the Presbyterian church. The theme "Following the High Way" was well presented by the two girls before the morning congregation. Leona Stephenson also attended the conference.

The dates for the Camp Marston Presbyterian camp for H. S. and college groups has been set from June 10th to 16th. All interested should plan to register soon.

Daily Vacation Bible School will be held from June 19 for three weeks. Many fine plans are in the making. Ideas will be welcomed.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE CHURCHES

The subject of the Lesson-Sermon is "Everlasting Punishment" on Sunday in all Churches of Christ, Scientist. The Golden Text is from Genesis: "Shall not the Judge of all the earth do right?"
Among the Bible citations in the Lesson-Sermon are these passages from Matthew: "In those days came John the Baptist, preaching in the wilderness of Judaea, And saying, Repent ye: for the kingdom of heaven is at hand. . . . But when he saw many of the Pharisees and Sadducees come to his baptism, he said unto them, . . . Bring forth therefore fruits meet for repentance." These words of Paul to the Galatians are also included: "Be not deceived; God is not mocked: for whatsoever a man soweth, that shall he also reap. For he that soweth to his flesh shall of the flesh reap corruption; but he that soweth to the Spirit shall of the Spirit reap life everlasting."

A passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy, states: "Christian Science commands man to master the propensities,—to hold hatred in abeyance with kindness, to conquer lust with chastity, revenge with charity, and to overcome deceit with honesty. . . . This is sin's necessity,—to destroy itself. Immortal man demonstrates the government of God, good, in which is no power to sin."

The California Woman's Club Federation News for May contains an article by Margaret Tipton Wheatly, with two illustrations from her own garden. There is a footnote telling that she is garden chair man of the Lakeside Woman's Club.

BEAUTIFUL EXHIBITS WIN HONORS AT WOMAN'S CLUB FLOWER SHOW

Report of the annual flower show of the Lakeside Woman's Club, given last week, had to be curtailed for lack of space. For that reason the list of prize winners could not be published at that time. It appears today.

In publishing this record of awards the Lakeside Farmer is happy to report that it heard many expressions of pleasure at the excellence of the exhibits and also because of the tasteful way in which they were displayed in the Woman's Club house, where the show was held.

For the success of the exhibition credit is due to the large number of residents who sent choice specimens from their gardens to adorn the tables. Thanks are also extended to the committee in charge which was composed of Mrs. George Miller, chairman; Mrs. W. W. Wheatly, Mrs. Otto Einer and Mrs. Allen G. Mitchell.

The list of award winners is as follows:

PRIZE WINNERS AT FLOWER SHOW

Class A, best rose: First, Mrs. A. Hull, Hadley; second, Mrs. A. Hull, Dame Edith Helen; award of merit, Mrs. Phyllis Isom, Southport.

Three Best Roses: First, Wm. Miller; second, Thomas B. Butler, Hadley.

Best Basket of Roses: Mrs. A. R. Held, Talisman; second, Mrs. George Gibson, Crimson Queen.

Class B, Bulbs: First, Mary Mitchell, Dutch Iris; second, Mrs. George Miller.

Class C, Sweet Peas: First, William Miller; second, Mrs. A. R. Held.

Class D, Annuals: First, Miss Seeman of the Lakeside Grammar school, calendulas; second, Mrs. W. Edwards, phlox.

Class E, Perennials: First, Mrs. A. Hull, lupin; second Mrs. George Miller, columbine; third

Mrs. C. Hopkins, gallardia.

Class F, Flowering Shrub: First, Mrs. Mary Ellis, eastern lilac; second, Mrs. Phyllis Isom syringa; third, award of merit, Mrs. N. M. Einer, flowering pomegranate.

Class G, Most Artistic Basket: First, Mrs. A. Hull; second, Mrs. Rachael Mytinger.

Class H, Best Miniature: First, Mrs. M. J. Wheatly; second, Mrs. George Miller; third award of merit, Claire Clevenger.

Class I, Iris: Mrs. C. Hopkins. Best table decorations: First, Junior Woman's Auxiliary; second, Tawasi Club.

Class J, Wild Flower: First, Mrs. A. G. Sly, red bush monkey flower.

Honorable mention was given to the Lakeside Union Grammar School for an interesting and comprehensive exhibit of wild flowers. A blue ribbon was also given to Bobbie Carlile for a display of pressed flowers numbering close to seventy varieties.

A welcome feature at the flower show was the serving of free punch. Mrs. Dewey Buckle and Mrs. L. C. Clevenger had charge of this popular activity.

No account of the flower show would be complete without cordial mention of the display of roses from Lindo park of which Wes Beadle is caretaker. Two tables of magnificent roses were shown, some of extraordinary size, deep red in color and of delightful fragrance.

GOVERNORS WILL BE HEARD

Governor Culbert L. Olson of California and Governor Sanchez Toboada of Baja, California, will exchange international greetings on Friday, May 12 at the Paradise Valley Sanitarium and Hospital, National City, when that institution observes National Hospital Day.

With Major General L. Mc Carley Little, Commandant of the San Diego Marine Base, as master of ceremonies an elaborate program will be presented by the sanitarium starting at 1:30 p. m.

The program will open with a short concert by the Sweetwater High School Band, which will be followed by introduction of distinguished guests. The speakers of the day will be Governors Olson and Toboada and Elwood T. Bailey, former chautauqua lecturer.

The King's Herald's quartet will sing several Indian songs in addition to a specialty number by sanitarium musicians and soloists.

In the field of modern medical science, departments of Paradise Valley Hospital and Sanitarium will be on display. The booths will remain open until 5:00 p. m.

As a special feature of the program, the recorded voice of Florence Nightingale, upon whose birthday, National Hospital Day is celebrated, will be heard throughout the day at a booth in the Nurses' Home.

Officials of the institution extend a cordial invitation to the public to be their guest on that day. There will be plenty of parking facilities and no charge for admission.

FLOWER SHOW NOTES

Flower shows can be such fun. They can also be most educational, and they can be disappointing. Since I was in on the judging this year, and closely listened to the criticism and the observations of the judges, and because I believe most of the exhibitors will appreciate knowing some of the judging points and will be able to exhibit their flowers more advantageously by knowing some of the rules whereby flowers are judged, I am giving a few of the simplest ways to judge your own flowers next year; that more of us will know the thrill of carrying off some of the ribbons.

We may still be wondering why that bowl of sweet peas or other flower arrangement didn't win. It so happens that sweet peas came in for their share of comments, and so while we are on the subject, let's discuss some of their remarks. One collection was volunteer. That is out. Another while having good flowers, the stems were too short. The opinion of the judges were that this year the sweet peas were very, very poor.

A most common avoidable error was: Ruled out of the judging because of failure to observe the rules of the classification, and of course when this occurred, they weren't considered at all. So let's be sure we are in the right class.

I wished more than once that I might be an invisible object with power to remove some of those too many stems. Of course, it may be the flower show committee's duties, one of them at least, to see that flowers are properly entered. I personally feel we do not have enough classes. In the case of an imperfect flower there's nothing one can do about that. Pick the flowers that close at sundown when they are full open.

I felt all during the judging that if only we could in some way remember a few of these little points that mean success or failure to the trained eyes of the judges we might be able to have a better show. I wished that every person who exhibited might have been there during the judging; to have heard the impartial criticisms, and to have learned from a professional point of view why some flowers win and others do not.

One felt rather sorry for the flowers. To have it said of a perfectly beautiful specimen that it grows like a weed, and that therefore the prize goes to the gardener who produced another more difficult variety of plant makes one realize that there is class distinction even in the horticultural world.

If a coveted bloom opens too long before the flower show one might try sheltering it from the elements by a hood of tissue paper, or a big bonnet of news paper. Incidentally this is also a very good practice for bringing them to the show. The petals of many flowers are so delicate, they get very badly bruised, rubbing one against another. A bruised flower never wins a prize. Also, the flowers should be picked in the late afternoon of the previous day, and submerged almost up to the flower heads in water and kept in a cool airy, not windy place. These crisp blossoms will stand the ride to the show better, and so will be able to greet the judges with a cool deliberate air of assurance.

And please remember not to put too many stems in a vase, to observe the rules of the classification.

Finally, regarding the miniatures: That four inches is a very small measurement, and that proportion, balance, and color harmony are some of the points to be on guard for. Small flowers for small bouquets, should be the watchword here. These should be the most delicate bouquets possible to create. And it is the most fun.

So let's plan—all of us—for a bigger, better show next year and remember some of the observations of the judges, when comparing one flower with another, and those gaily colored ribbons will surely be more evenly distributed.

A glorious thing, I feel, would be a ribbon for every exhibitor. In one class or another, and it is possible.

In the battle of life, good is made more industrious and persistent because of the supposed activity of evil, Mary Baker Eddy.

HIDDEN SOLDIER

The vegetation springing from this British soldier's helmet is for protective, not nutritive, purposes. The camouflaged helmet cover conceals him as he watches for the "enemy" during mimic warfare maneuvers. This type of camouflage is unusually effective, according to officers of His Majesty's army.

Mrs. John Angel was hostess to the "Easy Aces" bridge club at her home Wednesday afternoon. First prize was won by Mrs. Otto Einer and Mrs. B. R. Brown won the second prize.

To wrestle with the angel—this prevails, Though the purpose of the wrestling fails—Anon.

FREE RECREATION CLASS TO MEET

Sponsored by the W. P. A. Recreation section, free instruction in physical recreation is given here. The class is under the direction of Dr. P. M. Seixas, and meets at the old grammar school every Tuesday afternoon at 3:30.

WELL KNOWN EDITOR VISITS LAKESIDE

W. A. Maxwell well known in Southern California newspaper circles as editor and publisher of papers at San Juan Capistrano and Temple City was a visitor here yesterday, with his son O. K. Maxwell. They called at the Lakeside Farmer office and exchanged greetings with Noel Sands and C. C. Yelland.

Decision To Locate CCC Camp Near Grossmont Wins Favorable Comment

News published in the Lake side farmer last week to the effect that a 200-man CCC camp will be established in the Fletcher Hills, near Grossmont high school, brought favorable comment. CCC enrollees have done much valuable work throughout California.

When an unbiased record comes to be made of the efforts and achievements of the Franklin D. Roosevelt administration a high place will have to be given to the Civilian Conservation Corps. The President himself has always shown a great interest in the CCC and even his strongest opponents admit that he did something vastly worth while when he caused it to be established.

No one would accuse the Los Angeles Times of being a friend of the President but even that newspaper has borne testimony to the great usefulness of the CCC. The other day Chapin Hall, who conducts the "What Goes On" column in the Los Angeles newspaper, had the following to say on the subject which will be read with interest by Lakeside people.

GREAT BENEFIT OF CAMPS CONCEDED

"California has no reason to complain of one branch of the New Deal's spending department. The CCC has returned value received, and more, in road work, trail blazing and trail making, national and state park beautifying, reforestation and especially fire prevention and fire fighting."

"This branch of the government relief service has been conducted, often under serious handicaps, without scandal and certainly with great benefit, physically and by rehabilitation, to the men and boys enrolled and their families, to whom a part of their earnings are allocated, and to the communities in which the camps are maintained."

"What Goes On" has contacted a number of these and, with out exception, found the morale high, the oversight both Army and civilian, excellent and the accomplishments very satisfactorily constructive.

MOBILITY ADDS TO EFFICIENCY

"The mobility of the camps adds greatly to their efficiency. Enrollees have become emergency brigades available on short notice wherever their services are most needed. During the next few weeks four new California camps will be established in Yosemite, Sequoia and Lassen national parks in an effort to protect 250,000 acres of white and sugar pine trees from the deadly blister rust."

"The disease reached California in 1936. It is transmitted in the fall by wind-blown spores from infected bushes. Control work consists of uprooting and destroying these bushes and any suspected growth within a quarter of a mile of the pine forests."

Mrs. B. R. Brown of Lakeside Farm, was a week end guest of her mother, Mrs. K. E. Bacon of San Diego.

Callers at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Huffman on Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. Hovey Crandall and Mrs. Tom Rodne all of El Cajon.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred B. Morton and children of Lakeside and Fred Morton of Pacific Beach, spent an enjoyable day Sunday with the William H. Morton family of Banner.

Official Routes to The New York World's Fair

NEW YORK—Approved recently by Mayor F. H. La Guardia of New York City and Grover A. Whalen, President of the New York World's Fair, this map is designed to be of especial use to those motoring to the exposition. A comprehensive system of handling Fair traffic has been developed. Information booths will be found at bridge and tunnel approaches to New York. According to Mr. Whalen, out-of-town motorists will be able to thread their way through the city to the Fair grounds "as easily as they now go from home down to Main Street."

Women's Activities: Social and Personal

Second Annual Garden Pilgrimage To Be Held by Lakeside Woman's Club

Mrs. W. W. Wheatly, garden chairman of the Lakeside Woman's Club announces the second garden pilgrimage to be conducted on May 11th, in the afternoon following a very brief business meeting of the club.

Those who attended the pilgrimage last year will be delighted to learn that it is to be repeated.

Several new gardens have already been registered, and Mrs. Wheatly wishes to invite any one who may have something of special interest in their gardens to communicate with her either by postal card Lakeside P. O. or to leave word at the Farmer office, of their desire to share in this splendid community activity.

ENTERTAIN CLUB AT LUCAS HOME

LAKESIDE GIRL WEDS UTAH MAN IN LOS ANGELES

Mr. and Mrs. Lee A. Farnsworth of Lakeside announce the marriage of their daughter, Florence Grace, to Mr. Lawrence F. Nelson of Spanish Fork, Utah.

The marriage was solemnized in Los Angeles on March 25, by Father Flack of the Church of the Immaculate Conception. Miss Mary Louise Farnsworth, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. Mr. Nelson was attended by his friend Mr. John Mallory, from Boston, Mass.

The bride wore a lovely wedding gown of white taffeta with a fitted waist and large puff sleeves. Orange blossoms adorned the front of her dress and the halo of the veil. She carried a bouquet of pink and white roses.

After the wedding a reception was held for relatives and friends of the bride and groom. Several of Mr. Nelson's friends from Utah, were present.

The young couple plan to spend a month in Utah visiting relatives of the groom. On their way back they will take in the Golden Gate Exposition on Treasure Island.

Mr. and Mrs. Nelson are making their home in Los Angeles.

Two-Year-Old Tot Goes Adventuring

Little Esther Nunez of Lakeside got the wanderlust early in life. Last Tuesday this two year old tot set out to view the world. She was quite unconscious of the fact that when she was missed from her home she created quite some excitement in her neighborhood. But her quest for adventure did not last very long and she was soon found at the home of her grand mother, Mrs. S. Meza.

Mrs. Bertha E. Conrad has as her guests her daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. A. Brown of Los Angeles.

Mrs. Ruby Nelson and daughter, Rosemary, visited in Hollywood over the week end with Mrs. Nelson's mother, Mrs. Luenburger. While there they also visited Richard Nelson, who is attending San Dimas

THE WORLD NEWS IN PICTURES

College Students Stage Anti-War Demonstration

Student members of the University of Chicago youth committee against war are shown in a recent anti-war demonstration on the university campus. A student strike against war was advertised on placards carried by coeds. Sen. Gerald Nye of North Dakota addressed members of the organization. One sign, carried by a student, advised the purchase of football players, not battleships.

Chicago's School of Baking Teaches by Experience

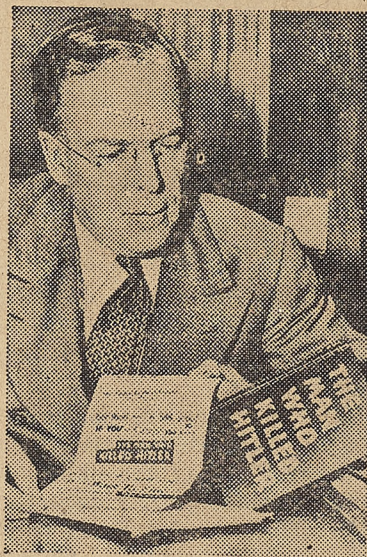

Little known to most people but highly important to the industry is Chicago's School of Baking, sponsored by the American Institute of Baking. Started in 1922, more than 1,200 persons have graduated from courses in the commercial production of baked products. The institute operates four separate baking units. Left: A group of students making laboratory experiments on the chemical properties of baking ingredients. Right: Evidently the experiments were a success, judging from the activities of Milton Lee, Moorhead, Minn., youth enrolled in the school.

School Ends for 6,000 Children in Coal Region

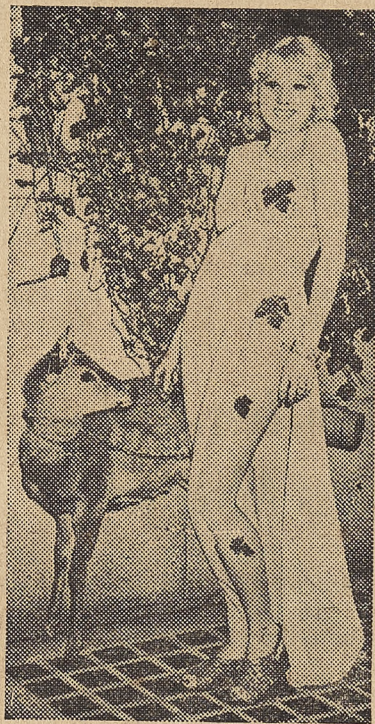

Because 93 teachers in Schuylkill county in Pennsylvania's anthracite region were owed $208,000 in salaries, they decided to walk out. More than 6,000 children from 20 schools were left without teachers. Left: Jerry Fitzpatrick and Dan Roth, Coal township high school teachers, attempted to defray expenses by working their bootleg coal mine. Right: Jean Troutman, 12, explains the situation on the blackboard.

THREATEN PUBLISHER

George Palmer Putnam, publisher, and husband of the late Amelia Earhart, inspects a bullet-pierced copy of the book entitled "The Man Who Killed Hitler" and a death threat note which he received following publication of the book. The evidence was turned over to the police.

FAWN DANCER

Faith Bacon, fawn dancer, picked up a fawn, a crowd of spectators and a policeman as she strolled through New York's Park avenue recently. She was taken into police custody—but the publicity gag worked.

KING OF IRAQ

Here is one of the world's youngest monarchs. His Majesty King Faisal II, three years old, succeeded to the throne of Iraq on the death of his father, King Ghazi, who was killed in an automobile accident. Until the king comes of age, Emir Abdul Ilah will act as regent.

Finders Keepers? Not for These Boys

These 12 East Side boys were honored guests at the Ringling Brothers circus in New York recently—and for a good reason. Through a mistake they were given 900 tickets supposed to go to a charity organization, and planned to profit thereby. When they found out the tickets were to go to orphans they promptly returned all 900 tickets. As a result they were admitted free of charge to the big top.

Recruiting for Britain's Territorials

Demonstrations and parades have been held throughout all of Britain in the drive to double the strength of the Territorial army. Here an officer of the army demonstrates the handling of a Bren gun to a group of interested men and boys.

British Rulers See Repulse of 'Enemy'

LAKESIDE DELEGATE ATTENDS SOIL CONSERVATION MEETING

In answer to a general invitation issued by Eric E. Eastman, County Agent, F. L. Lake attended the Soil Conservation Service meeting held in El Cajon Wednesday evening; at which a general explanation was given concerning the impending campaign to be put on in the El Cajon and adjacent valleys.

Mr. Chas. W. Wilson who is project manager for the Federal Government and whose headquarters are in Santa Ana, Mr. J. L. Woolsey, Camp Supt. of the CCC Camp at El Toro, Mr. C. W. Thomas, project engineer and other federal officials were at the meeting, consisting of about 60, over which Mr. Eastman presided.

CAMP TO START SOON

The CCC Camp will be located almost directly North of the Grossmont High School. The camp is being moved from the El Toro project and construction will start within about 10 days and will be inhabited with about 200 workmen.

It is the ardent desire of all of the officials at the head of the enterprise that all property owners, whose land is subject to washing, erosion or in need of conservation, file an application for service and it is planned that the blank applications will be at the office of the Lakeside Builders Store and possibly elsewhere, where the people can get them.

NO OBLIGATION

The filing of an application for work does in no manner imply that the work will be done and does not in any manner obligate the property owner; but it does insure a gratis survey of the land after which recommendations are made by the Federal Government to the owner. Then if enough property is signed up in that particular water shed the contracts are drawn for the approval of the property owner.

The U. S. Department of Agriculture will furnish all labor and will bring onto the job all native material which might be required, provided they are within 5 miles over accessible roads. The owner would have to furnish any materials, other than those that can be procured in a native state and would probably be required to provide tractor work or such like, other than man power labor which is all furnished by the Federal Government.

TWO YEAR PROGRAM

The program will probably last for a period of 2 years and if so it most certainly provides a grand opportunity for all property owners in the Lakeside area to get their lands up in fine shape so that future rains and storm waters will not damage fields and orchards.

Plans are under foot for the calling of a mass meeting in the Lakeside area in the near future. The more important officials of the project have promised to attend. Plenty of notice will be given so all in this area can be present and become fully educated.

It will require quite a little missionary work amongst the various ranchers as absolutely no soliciting is done by the Federal authorities.

In the meantime you are invited to drop into the Lakeside Builders Store; get an application, which will be available on about the 10th, and get what information is available previous to the mass meeting, early in June. It is suggested that Lakesiders form a party for a trip to the CCC Camp when in operation, where a free lunch will be provided and an educational program given.

HOMETALENT TO GIVE FARCICAL PLAY MAY 12

WILL BE BENEFIT PERFORMANCE FOR SCHOOL STAGE

The Lakeside Players will present their last play of the season on May 12 at the school auditorium.

It is, the story of a struggling author and artist. Everything seems against them until the artist sells his pictures upside down and the author starts his stories at very sentimental endings. Hence the name, Upside Down.

This three act farce comedy features the two stars of "Ten Nights," Clyde Changmon and Carl Howell. They are supported by Fred Morton, Grace Fankhanel, Dorothy Morton, Myrtle Buckel, Mabel Haley and Ruby Nelson.

This benefit, the players hope will bring in enough returns so that the Lakeside school stage can be fixed up for the June graduation. They say, "Come one, come all. Support your home talent and at the same time help beautify our school. And of course enjoy an evening of good, clean fun. Be sure and reserve the date, May 12 at 8 p. m."

which were contributed by the various members.

Stanley Conant made a report on the March's memorial and a motion was adopted that the chamber contribute $5.

A delicious dinner was served by members of the Ladies Aid of the Community Church. They were Mrs. B. R. Brown, Mrs. Woodward, Mrs. A. G. Sly, Mrs. T. I. Nalbach and Mrs. O. O. Storm.

The men who attended this dinner meeting were President A. G. Mitchell, Treasurer Adrean Lantz, Secretary Noel N. Sands, R. L. Swearingin, John Rocchio, Harry Keller, Stanley Conant, B. T. Reed, Stephen F. Sharpe, E. H. Carender, Freddie Bundle, Harold Laws, L. G. Scott, John Wilkinson, Wm. Wollin, Tony Held, John Angel and Rev. T. I. Nalbach.

HAZEL MC CART HAS NOTABLE CAREER

Hazel McCart, the bronco busting grandmother, already mentioned, has appeared before at Lakeside rodeos. She is spoken of by her friends as one of the most interesting personages in the world of western sports. She has thrilled many throngs not only in America but in the Hawaiian Islands and in Japan. She was with the Al G. Barnes circus in 1932. She made the voyage to the mid-Pacific islands and to Japan in 1934, and she was with Ken Maynard's wild west show in 1936.

At the age of 43, Mrs. McCart is a grandmother and lays claim to being the only woman steer rider in activity. She has had an adventurous career. Her parents wanted her to be a musician, but Hazel could not see it that way. So at the age of 16, she ran away from home and joined a circus. With a lot of nerve and born riding skill, she was soon busting broncos.

And she didn't stop at that—she became famous as a steer rider. Bronco-busting is hazardous, but steer riding is even more so. Fall cleanly off a horse and the danger is over; the bronc will go dashing away unless he is the rare killer type. But the steer won't run away. He'll hang around for a chance to gore his recent cargo.

Mrs. McCart had her close shave last November in San Bernardino. She was riding what she calls a "Highland Cow," a steer with great wide-spreading, upturned horns. The steer gave a terrific leap and lost his balance, turning over. Mrs. McCart was pinned underneath. But she was equal to the occasion. Aided by the strength of her arms she managed to squeeze her body between the steer's horns and came up without a scratch.

Why does a woman of 43 and a grandmother at that continue to ride steers and broncos? Ask Mrs. McCart that and her reply is "because of the thrills." It's the spice of her life. But, advises Mrs. McCart, don't try busting broncos or riding steer, unless you are long on nerves, acrobatic and level-headed.

RADIO TALK GIVEN BY LOCAL PASTOR

That fire cannot destroy truth and that the preachers of today are in the direct succession of the prophets of old were statements made in a radio broadcast Monday morning by Rev. T. I. Nalbach, pastor of Lakeside Community Church. He also emphasized the fact that "you cannot get along without religion."

Illustrating his point that truth is immortal he recalled how the King of Judah had cut up one of the books of Jeremiah and threw it into the fire. But the book remains, and who now remembers anything about the king except that which appears in Jeremiah's book? "Fire cannot destroy truth," declared the Lakeside pastor.

Life affords no higher pleasure than that of surmounting difficulties—Anon.
